

It has come to my notice that individual employees of EMC Ltd are communicating in writing with the customers regarding Bank Guarantee renewal without my knowledge and authorization. I would request every employee of the Company to refrain from communicating with the client regarding Bank Guarantee related matters which will be done centrally from Head Office by the RP team. Any employee found guilty of violating this circular will be subjected to disciplinary action.